The Bridge from Student to Community

ABOUT UNIHUB

Hiring is becoming more skills based. The workforce demands are changing, and universities need to adapt to meet these demands. Work and learning models—co-ops, internships, and extra-curricular activities—are a natural way for colleges to better develop their students’ skill sets.

WHY UNIHUB

Symplicity’s UniHub solution is designed to support an institution-wide approach to skills development. UniHub connects students to university opportunities which translates into desirable skills that ultimately enables them to contribute to their community.

WHAT CLIENTS ARE SAYING

“Symplicity’s UniHub solution has transformed the way we manage and track student event attendance leading to higher student engagement, reporting and student satisfaction whilst reducing operational costs.”

Dr. Alan McAlpine, Associate Director, Strategic Partnerships, Student Success Group, QUT
